IS VISITATION DAY

SUNDAY SCHOOLS TOMORROW TO HEAR OF BIBLE LANDS

PEOPLE ARE SUFFERING

Miss Eva Davis Named Campaign Leader by Organized Sunday School Movement.

"The remotest place on the continent in these stirring days is not too secluded to feel the world-thrill, and to have a part in the great movements thhat are making the world a better place to live in, and alleviating its suffering," said Miss Eva M. Davis of Maryville recently. Miss Davis has been chosen by the Missouri State Sunday School Association and the International Sunday School Association, with headquarters in Chicago, as the leader of a campaign looking toward a Continent-Wide Sunday School Visitation Day, December first, when every Sunday school in North America will be visited by a representative of the Organized Sunday School Movement, in behalf of the suffering thousands in Bible lands.

"Christian North America," said Miss Davis, 'is being called on at this time to pour out its money for Liberty Bonds and for war service activities of every kind. It is responding nobly. Another challenging call, however, is sounding in the ears of the Christian people of North America. It is the call of over two million people in Bible lands—Armenians, Syrians and Greeks of Asia Minor.

"These people, who are the hope of civilization in Western Asia, have endured, and are enduring, such suffering as our American minds cannot conceive. They have been massacred and deported. Men have been separated from their families and ruthlessly murdered. Attractive women and girls have been sold as slaves or taken by the Turks. The rest of the women and the children have been driven into the mountains and the desert, and the path over which these refugees have gone is strewn with the dead. In the past two years over one million have died from massacre, deportation, exposure and disease. But the dead no longer challenge us; it is those who live and can yet be saved.

"The ravages of war the past year have added to the horror. The Turkish armies have destroyed everything in their wake. Four million people destitute of home, clothed only in rags, are facing the cold of winter and starvation. One million of these can be reached by relief agencies. Four hundred thousand of them are orphans The relief agencies can do nothing unless North America furnishes the money.

"The land where Christianity had its birth is asking for a practical demonstration of that Christianity now. All the denominations have united to answer this call from the east and a campaign has been launched to raise two million dollars from the Sunday schools of North America. Every Sunday school is asked to give a Christmas season offering to Armenian and Syrian Relief work.

"To make sure that no Sunday school is overlooked in this appeal, the International Sunday School Association is planning to have every Sunday school visited on December first for the purpose of explaining the need, creating enthusiasm and pledging the schools to make as large an offering as possible. The International Sunday School Association in this campaign is working in co-operation with the Armenian and Syrian Relief Committee in New York, and the two million which they are to raise is part of a larger campaign on the part of the committee for thirty million dollars.

"The Armenian and Syrian Relief Committee has already done a wonderful work in ministering to these suffering people and have been enabled to save thousands of lives. The committee is directed by leading men of the continent and its work has been highly endorsed by President Wilson and Sir Robert Borden, the premier of Canada, and by Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft. One feature of the work of the committee is unique. It is enabled to devote all money collected for relief work to the immediate cause for which it is given. Expenses for collection, printing, postage and administration and the transmitting of funds are met privately. Distribution of all supplies is cared for by the American consular forces and Armenian missionaries, whose services are loaned for this ministry."

TAKE ALL PRECAUTION

After seven weeks enforced closing due to the epidemic of influenza the public schools will re-open next Monday morning. Supt. McDonald has notified all teachers that classes will be resumed and in order to make up the time lost thirty minutes will be added each day with classes on Saturday morning.

Supt. McDonald said this morning that every precaution will be taken to see that influenza does not get started in the schools. "At the time the schools were closed by order of the health board," said Mr. McDonald, "no school children had contracted the disease save in one room. This room has been thoroughly fumigated and disinfected."

Arrangements have been made with local physicians, one of whom will be in attendance every morning to examine every pupil haviny any symptoms of influenza. Any other cases of illness developing during the day will be excused from school until they can see the school physician on the following morning. Every teacher has been given complete information regarding influenza so that all may be able to co-operate in every way possible with the school physician.

In order to cover as much as possible of the work which has been missed by the closing of the schools for seven weeks, the afternoon sessions will be lengthened thirty minutes and school will be held on Saturday mornings only. All school bells will ring at the usual hours as heretofore.

The rural schools have practically all resumed classes. Supt. Cooper stated this morning that there were yet fifteen in the county that had not re-opened, and that these would probably resume within the next weeks.

HARVEY'S MINSTRELS COMING

Will Be Seen at Empire Theatre Next Tuesday Night.

The minstrel fans of this vicinity will be pleased to learn that one of the very best and largest minstrel organizations on the road is to appear in this city at the Empire Theater, Tuesday, Dec. 3.

The Harvey Greater Minstrels was this season organized and is owned by R. M. Harvey, a well known circus man who has for years been spending money in the circus business like money was water. The expense of building an amusement enterprise does not disturb him because as manager of one of the greatest circus enterprises on the road he learned it is only the lavish expenditure of money that success can be attained. Hence it is not surprising that Harvey's Greater Minstrels wear the swellest, most expensive wardrobe ever worn by any minstrel and also that its olio of seven acts of vaudeville include specialties not to be outclassed any where and the members of this minstrel are highest salaried and the best treated of any minstrel men on the road.

Only two presidents of the United States have borne other than British surnames. These were both Dutch—Van Buren and Roosevelt.

It is estimated there are 10,000 private employment agencies throughout the United States.

GET WATER EXPERT

CITY BOARD HOPES TO IMPROVE CONDITIONS

PLANT IN GOOD SHAPE

E. E. Harper of Kansas City, Will Devote Time in Effort to Secure Better Water for City.

By securing the services of an expert in purification of water the board of public works hopes to provide water patrons with better water. At a meeting of the board last night the services of E. E. Harper of Kansas City, an expert in this line, were engaged, who during the next six months will endeavor to make such improvements and corrections in the present system of handling the city water as will insure better water. The water has been brought to its present state of clarity through suggestions made by Mr. Harper.

Mr. Harper, who is a well known authority and formerly a waterworks engineer, stated that the present plant was in good condition and fully capable of providing pure water for Maryville. He said that he had made a thorough investigation of the pumping station and an inspection of the machinery and had found it in good condition, and that no part of it included any "junk." Mr. Harper said the difficulty in securing clear water was with the pressure filters, as with open filters, the water might be more easily clarified. This, he pointed out, was not a serious difficulty and may be remedied.

Mr. Harper also said that analysis of the water had proved its purity and freedom from bacteria and that the coloring was suspended matter that might presently be eliminated.

Mr. Harper will make regular trips to Maryville in his capacity as supervisor and is empowered by the board to make such changes and corrections in the operation of the plant as may be for the good of the service. He will be retained in this capacity until June 1, 1919. Manager Sorrell will continue in active charge of the water works and will carry out such instructions as may be given.

PEACE DELEGATES

LANSING, WHITE, HOUSE AND BLISS WILL ACT FOR U. S.

WILSON TO HEAD PARTY

President Explains Delay Was Necessary Until Number of Representatives Had Been Agreed Upon.

Washington, Nov. 30.—President Wilson will address congress at one o'clock Monday afternoon, it was announced at the White House today. At the same time it was indicated the President would leave for New York the same afternoon and would sail for Europe on the following morning. It was also said that one of Mr. Wilson's last official acts before leaving this country would be to announce successors to Secretary McAdoo as treasurer and director general of railroads.

Washington, Nov. 30. — President Wilson personally will head the American delegation to the peace conference. This was announced officially last night at the White House.

The other members of the delegation will be:

Robert Lansing, secretary of state.

Col. E. M. House.

Henry White, former ambassador to France and Italy.

Gen. Tasker N. Bliss, former chief of staff on the army and now American military representative on the supreme war council at Versailles.

The White House announcement follows:

"It was announced at the executive office last night that the representatives of the United States at the peace conferences would be:

"The president himself, the secretary of state, the Hon. Henry White, recently ambassador to France, Mr. Edward M. House, and Gen. Tasker N. Bliss.

"It was explained that it had not been possible to announce these appointments before because the number of representatives each of the chief belligerents was to send until a day or two ago, had been under discussion."

President Wilson's announcement of the personnel of the peace delegation will cause the senate to voice its disapproval when Congress re-convenes Monday, it is believed today. There has been strong belief among members of the upper house that one of their number should be included in the delegation. Furthermore, it is reported that when the President addresses the joint session on Monday, he would do no more than describe what kind of reconstruction legislation he desires, touching only lightly on the peace conference, has served to cause republican senators especially to bring up their lines for sharp skirmishes.

Paris, Nov. 30.—The Portugese peace delegation is the first to arrive on the ground for the conference, the members having reached here today.

The physical condition of Col. House who has been ill makes it likely that he will be unable to attend the conference of the Allied leaders in London next week.

Commission Government--Law Governing Adoption By Cities

The process by which cities of the third class may secure and adopt commission form of government together with the powers of the commissioners under same, is set forth by law as follows:

Section 1. Any city of the third class or any city whose population would entitle it to be a city of the third class may adopt the so-called Commission form of government.

Section 2. To initiate the proceedings there must be filed a petition of legal voters equal in number to 25 per cent of the total number of votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last city election. 808 votes were cast for mayor last spring and the petition would thereore require 202 signers.

If the proposition fails to carry at the election it cannot be resubmitted for two years. If the proposition does carry the city cannot hold an election to return to the old form of organization short of six years. The election to abandon Commission government requires a petition by the same number of voters as for an election to adopt it.

When the petition for adoption of the Commission form of government is submitted the mayor is required by proclamation to submit the question at a special election to be held at a time specified therein no more than two months after the petition is filed.

Only a majority vote, not a 2-3 vote, is required to carry the proposition.

If the proposition carries cities of a population like Maryville proceed to the election of a mayor and two councilmen at the next regular city election after the adoption of the proposition for Commission government at the special election. If no regular election occurs within six months after the special election, then the mayor, within ten days after the special election, by proclamation must call a special election to elect the mayor and two councilmen, 60 days' notice thereof being given by publication.

Section 3. All laws governing cities of the third class apply to cities under Commission government. This is true even though the city was a fourth class city when it voted on the proposition. Adoption of commission government automatically adopts the laws applicable to cities of the third class.

All by-laws, ordinances and resolutions in force in the city before the adoption of commission government continue in force unless altered or repealed. The corporate limits of the city remain the same, the title to all property remains the same and no debt, obligation or liability either in favor of or against the city is affected or changed.

Section 4. The mayor and two councilmen are elected every two years. If a vacancy occurs in any of these three offices the remaining members fill it by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The three officers are elected from the city at large without regard to ward lines.

Section 5. A primary is held to nominate candidates for mayor and councilmen two weeks before the regular city election each two years. The judges and clerks at the primary election are the same as those for the regular city election to be held two weeks later and the polling places and hours between which the same is held are to be the same, as far as possible.

Any person desiring to become a candidate, or mayor or councilman must give at least a ten days' written notice of his candidacy in the form required by the statute and file the same with the city clerk.

Immediately after the time for filing notices of candidacy has expired the city clerk must publish for three successive days in all the daily papers in the city the names of all persons whose names are to appear as candidates on the primary ballot. The names of the candidates for mayor and councilmen are arranged alphabetically on the ballot. One short ballot is used for all names and the voter puts a check after the names of the candidates he votes for.

The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for mayor and the four candidates receiving the highest number of votes for councilmen shall be the candidates at the regular city election to be held two weeks later.

Section 6. The mayor and two councilmen elected compose the city council. All three have the right to vote on all questions. Two members constitute a quorum and at least two votes are required to adopt any measure. Upon every vote the yeas and nays must be called and recorded and every motion, resolution or ordinanee must be reduced to writing and read before voted upon. The mayor has no power of veto, but he or the two councilmen must sign every ordinance and resolution.

Section 7. The council possesses and exercises every sort of power vested in the city government. The powers of the city are distributed among five departments as follows:

Department of public affairs.
Department of accounts and finance.
Department of public safety.
Department of streets and public improvements.
Department of parks and public property.

Two or more of these departments may be assigned to one officer.

The council has authority to determine the powers and duties of all officers and may combine the duties of several offices in one man and, in general, run the city as a private enterprise would be run.

Section 8 and 10. The mayor is the superintendent of the Department of Public Affairs and the other four departments are divided between the two councilmen subject to change from time to time as the council may see fit.

The council may create, abolish, appoint to and demote from the following offices from time to time as it sees fit.

City clerk.
City attorney.
Assessor.
Treasurer.
Auditor.
City engineer.
City physician.
Marshal.
Fire chief.
Police judge.
Market master.
Street commissioner.
Three library trustees.
Any other officers or assistants.

Section 9. The salary of the mayor and two councilmen shall be fixed by ordinance payable in equal monthly installments. The compensation of all other officers shall also be filed by ordinance.

Section 10. (See Section 8.)

Section 11. The council hold their first meeting on the first Monday after their election and at least once a month thereafter at a date fixed by ordinance Special meetings can be called by the mayor, and the two councilmen. The meetings shall be open to the public unless they are in executive session. The mayor shall be President of the council and possesses a supervising authority over all departments. The superintendent of the department of accounts and finances shall be vice-president of the council.

Section 12. Every measure appropriating money or providing for any street or sewer improvement or any contract or franchise must be on file in form as passed at the city clerk's office for one week before passage. All franchises can be granted only by a majority vote of the city.

Section 13. Provisions similar to our Corrupt Practice Act about being interested in city contracts, etc.

Section 14. Civil service commissioners—applicable only to cities of between 20,000 and 30,000 population.

Section 15. More provisions with reference to corrupt practice.

Section 16. An itemized statement of receipts and expenses must be printed every three months in pamphlet form and copies furnished to the Public Library and all newspapers in the city and all persons who apply therefor at the City Hall. A complete audit of all books must be made at the end of each year and the results published in detailed pamphlet orm as above.

Section 17. Special provisions regarding outstanding appropriations made by city adopting City Government.

Section 18. Definitions.

Section 19. This provides for the recalling of elective officers at any time. A petition for the election of a successor to the officer desired to be removed must be filed, signed by at least 25 per cent of the number of voters who voted for all candidates for mayor at the last election, stating, also generally, the grounds for removal. The signatures need not all be on one page but at least one signer to each paper must make oath that the statements therein are true and that the signatuers are authentic. Within ten days after the petition is filed the City Clerk shall examine the same and ascertain if the required number of voters have signed it. If found to be insufficient, it may be amended within ten days and in case of amendment the Clerk must examine it again within ten days. If found insufficient the second time it must be withdrawn but the signers may file a new petition. If a sufficient petition is lodged with the Clerk a special election must be held within not less than thirty nor more than forty days pursuant to due publication and all formalities as in a regular election.

Nominations at a recall election are not made by primary but by petition filed with the City Clerk at least ten days before the election signed by voters numbering at least 10 per cent of the number cast for mayor at the last city general election. If the officer is ousted and a successor elected he holds office for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The officer sought to be removed will be designated as a candidate at the special recall election, without a petition, unless he requires otherwise, in writing; the candidate receiving the highest number of votes is elected. If the party selected fails to qualify within ten days the office is deemed vacant.

Section 20. Provides about Referendum.

By petition the voters may submit a proper ordinance to the city council. All formalities with respect to verification of the petition are the same as in recall elections. If the petition is signed by 25 per cent of the voters the council must pass the ordinance without alteration within twenty days or submit it to a special election unless there is a general election within 90 days. If the petition is signed by less than 25 per cent but more than 10 per cent the council must pass the ordinance within twenty days or submit it at the next general election if there is one within 30 days. A majority vote in favor of the ordinance adopts it and it cannot be repealed or amended by the council without a vote of the people. Any number of ordinances may be voted on at one election but there shall not be more than one special election in any six months period. The council may submit a proposition or the repeal of any ordinance thus voted on, or for amendments thereto, at the next general city election. All ordinances voted on must be published once in each daily paper in the city no more than 20 nor less than 5 days before the election.

Section 21. No ordinance except one for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, containing an emergency clause, can go into effect before ten days from its final passage and during said ten days a petition signed by 25 per cent of the voters may be filed protesting against the passage of the ordinance whereupon the ordinance shall be suspended until an election is held to consider it, and if a majority vote against it it is lost.

FORREST GOODEN IN ENGLAND

Says Nearly Every British Tommy One Sees Is Wounded.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Gooden are in receipt of the following letter from their son, Forrest, who had landed in England just a few days previous to writing.

Winchester, Eng., Nov. 10.

Dear Mother and Dad: How is everybody at home by this time? Hope you have received my card announcing my safe arrival here. We has a nice trip across the ocean, with the exception of a few days of rough weather. I have been several places in England but am not permitted to name them. There sure are lots of big camps over here. The one we are in is a very large one. It is a large city by itself, believe me. I sure have not lost anything in England. The sun never shines and it rains every day. But every one is in a good humor. You used to think I could not step out of the house back home without catching cold and you ought to see how and where we sleep and eat over here.

You can tell dad that Sherman sure knew what he was talking about when he said war is hell. You people back in the states have no idea what war is. Very nearly every British Tommy you see over here is wounded but, thank God, it has come to look like war would be settled before very long, but you can't tell what Fritz has up his sleeves. You sure can tell all the world I will be glad when I get back in the good old U. S. A. I expect you would laugh to see me marching along in big hobnailed shoes, a 45 on my hip and about a 75 pound pack on my back. You feel more like a pack mule than a soldier, but we try to smile through everything. We won't be long at this camp, but expect to go on to France soon. I sure hope it is warmer there than here. How is the "flu" back in the states?

Hope you and dad are enjoying good health as I am, and please don't worry for Uncle Sam will take good care of us. I haven't seen anyone from dear old Maryville since I have been here.

I will close for this time and will try and write you every day if possible but you won't receive them that often so don't worry.

SGT. FORREST O. GOODEN,
Co. D, 423 Telephone Battalion, Signal Corps.

BACK LIKE A BOARD? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

There's no use suffering from the awful agony of lame back. Don't wait till it "passes off." It only comes back. Find the cause and stop it. Diseased conditions of the bladder or kidneys are usually indicated by stiff lame back, wrenching pains, lumbago, sciatica, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired, worn-out feeling, pain in the lower abdomen. These are nature's signals for help!

Here's the remedy. When you feel the first twinges of pain or experience any of these symptoms, get busy at once. Go to your druggist and get a box of the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month from the laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. Pleasant and easy to take, they almost instantly attack the poisonous germs that are clogging up your system and bring quick relief.

For over two hundred years they have been helping the sick. Why not try them? Sold everywhere by reliable druggists in sealed packages. Three sizes. Money back if they do not help you. Ask for "GOLD MEDAL" and be sure the name "GOLD MEDAL" is on the box. Adv.

NEWS FROM
NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

Taken from Papers over the County.

The prospect for a good wheat crop was never better here. Unusually favorable weather has caused a rapid and vigorous growth of the crop and many fields are being pastured. The extra forage is certainly needed for the stock by Nodaway county farmers this year.—Burlington Junction Post.

E. H. Trosper, who has been living on the Luther Fast place west of Burlington Junction, has leased the W. W. Potts farm of 240 acres 3½ miles south of Burlington Junction. This is a splendid farm and Ev will make it blossom like the rose. L. D. Carter, who has been living on this farm, has bought a place in Nebraska and will move there.

It sounded unusual to hear the school bell ring last Saturday, and no doubt it sounded worse than that to the pupils. But it is the only way that the board of directors of Burlington Junction can devise to make up the four weeks' time that was lost when the school was closed, without continuing the term until late in the spring. Under the present arrangement school begins on Saturday at 8:30. A half hour is allowed for lunch at noon, and school is dismissed at 2:30 in the after noon. This makes a full day, and at the same time allows the pupils a short holiday. There will be no school tomorrow, Thanksgiving, but there will be school Friday and Saturday, as usual. Every thing possible will be done to make up the lost time so that the term can close the middle of May.

The 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffey, who live on the A. C. Nicholas farm sonth of Burlington Junction, was severely injured Thursday afternoon when he fell from a load of corn, which his father was bringing from the field. The back wheel run over the boy's shoulder, crushing it badly. There were forty bushels of corn in the load and it was almost a miracle that the boy was not killed. Dr. W. M. Hindman was called and he reduced the injury as much as possible.

A party of six land buyers were in Burlington Junction from Illinois and Iowa Friday and spent the day looking at some of the ranch land west of Burlington Junction. The fame of Nodaway and Atchison counties as great agricultural sections is traveling far and wide. While, in some cases the land looks "high" to the people who have spent many years here and have seen it advance from $5 an acre to $150, it evidently doesn't appeal that way to the men who come from older settled districts, many of whom buy, and come here to "grow up with the country."

The Elmo school board decided that it will be best to start school next Monday morning, Dec. 2.

Last Monday Wm. Green purchased the restaurant Howard Garrett traded for at College Springs and has moved the stock to Clearmont, into the building formerly occupied by A. H. Kelley just west of the old Dr. Dowell office, and is shelving and arranging them and will run a restaurant. He expects to be ready to open up for business the first of next week. Mrs. Green will assist in waiting on the customers.

Glen Lincoln sold his farm of 160 acres located west of Bolckow to a Mr. Hale for $147.50, the deal being completed Tuesday. Lincoln bought this farm last year. He gives possession March 1, and has no plans for the coming year.

Chas. Wohlford of Barnard returned from Camp McArthur, Texas, last Saturday, having received his discharge. He is among the first of those to be discharged in the general disbanding of the draft army. Roy Langley of Guilford, who is home on a furlough has a discharge waiting him on his return.

S. A. Matson of Barnard, has an old flag which has a unique history, that was brought to mind during the recent victory celebration when it was displayed at Hartley & Daniels' store. The flag was the banner of the old Penfield Post of the Grand army of the Republic which was located at Barnard until a few years ago. On the day of the election of Cleveland for the last time, the flag was flying at the corner of the State Bank. When the news came that he was elected, some rowdies took the flag down and hid it away in the old dump where it lay for four or five years before it was accidentally found. Jim McKnight then took charge of the flag and upon his leaving for the west, left it in the hands of S. A. Matson, who has it now. Its frayed appearance is due to its being allowed to fly in the wind during one summer over the school house.

John A. Fields, prominent banker, farmer and business man of Barnard and Nodaway county, celebrated his 52nd birthday Tuesday. Mr. Fields has been the successful cashier of the Barnard State Bank for the past twenty years and has built that institution up into a powerful bank. He owns about 660 acres of land and farms for an avocation. He has been very prominent in the recent Liberty Loan and Charity drives and has handled them very successfully. The day was celebrated at his home with a few guests at dinner. Those present were Mrs. Anna Matheny, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Matson and Miss Maggie Matson.

Dwight Shipps and family of Skidmore left Saturday for Bethany, Mo., to visit his parents and to attend the memorial services, which were to be held at that place on Sunday, November 24, for his brother, Thomas Shipps, who was wounded in action in France. The date of his death was September 27.

Jarvis Close, eight miles and one-half west of Skidmore, was taken to St. Joseph Saturday for an operation for appendicitis. He was operated on but did not survive the operation. The body was brought to Fairfax Wednesday evening and interment will be today.

Charley Beech and family of Clarinda, Iowa, started by auto yesterday to Topeka, Kansas. By the time they reached the river at Rulo, Nebraska, the roads became almost unmanageable and the auto did not want to go very well so they turned around and started home. It was quite late when they reached Skidmore and Mr. Beech thought he knew the road home and wanted to get home last night. But he started out of town on the wrong street and when he got to the first road going north he went that way when he should have gone about a half a mile farther east. He made it alright until he reached the crooked road around the Smith cemetery and it seems as though he and the car got at loggerheads, for when he pushed one way the car would try and go another way. After trying that awhile he arbitrated the matter by tying one hind wheel with his toe line and hitching it up to a fence post to keep it from running away and they put up for the night in the auto.

This morning they got a team to help them back to town and they took the next train for home.

Lige Davis of Clearmont loaded his effects into a car Monday and on Tuesday shipped it to Colorado, where he has bought land. His son went with the car, but Lige and his family went through by auto.

At a special meeting of the Conception school board Monday evening it was decided that a reward of $25.00 be offered for information leading to arrest and conviction of the party or parties who attempted to destroy the Conception Junction school building, Sunday evening, Nov. 24, 1918, by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Farnan of Conception went to Rochester, Minn., Monday where they will receive medical treatment.

George Dooley of Hopkins has received word from Mrs. Lillie Florea of Colorado Springs, stating that her son-in-law, Wendell Harness, had died of pneumonia. Mr. Harness has only been in service a short time and was in France at the time of his death. His wife, Mrs. Eva Harness, was in the hospital with influenza when the news of his death came Nov. 16.

Jim Conant and Russel Thompson left Hopkins last week with two cars for their new home near Rose Pine, La. We are sorry to see such good people leave this section, but feel it will not be long until they will be ready to return, this being the history of most people who leave here looking for a better country.

Ora Burch of Hopkins has decided to move to Wyoming, to a ranch near Cheyentt, and as he says, will raise sheep and live on prairie dogs. He will give a closing out sale here Dec. 3.

Mrs. H. S. Maxwell of Hopkins is in receipt of a telegram announcing the safe arrival of her husband overseas.

Mrs. Paul Newlon and two children, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Newlon's mother, Mrs. J. T. Carpenter, left Sunday for their home in Olney Springs, Colo. Major Paul Newlon has been in France for some time, but is expected home within the next few months. Major Newlon has made rapid advancement since he entered military service and was entrusted with much responsible work before being sent across with the expeditionary forces. He lived at Clearmont and Maryville before going west.—Burlington Junction Post.

Good Job For Hopkins Man.

At the close of the present term of school, Supt. Richeson of Hopkins, will return to Carroll county to take up new duties as instructor in vocational agriculture. This is a new phase of educational work provided for by the Smith Hughes Act, under which one half of the teacher's salary is paid by the United States government. The duties of the new work will call upon Mr. Richeson to act as principal of the school, instructor in agriculture, and supervisor of agricultural projects for boys. In the latter case, the work will be in co-operation with the county farm agent. The salary will be two hundred dollars per month.—Hopkins Journal.

TOOK HIM AN HOUR TO WALK A BLOCK

Had to Hobble Around on Two Canes—Able to Work First Time in Four Years Since Taking Tanlac.

"I hadn't been able to do a day's work in four years when I began taking Tanlac, but I have gained thirty pounds and am now putting in full time every day," said J. C. Fischer of Edmonds, Oklahoma.

"Four years ago," he continued, "I was taken down with typhoid fever that left me so weak and rundown I could just manage to hobble around on my two canes and it would actually take me an hour to go a block sometimes. I had catarrh badly and it gave me no end of trouble. My appetite was poor, and even the lightest food I could get would upset my stomach. I was miserable night and day and took all kinds of medicines without getting any better.

"I begun to pick up immediately after I started on Tanlac and after I finished my third bottle, I threw away my canes and went back to work. I kept on taking Tanlac—have now taken five bottles, haven't missed a day's work since—the catarrh has disappeared; I can eat just anything I want to, sleep like a log and I sure thank Tanlac for my recovery.

Tanlac is sold in Maryville by the Koch Pharmacy and A. M. Colly, Conception Junction. Adv.

EL PASO WOMEN'S FRIENDS SURPRISED

Mrs. Johnson Declares That Her Rapid Recovery Astonished Everyone—Had Suffered for Eight Years.

"My recovery and improvement since I started taking Tanlac, has astonished all my friends," said Mrs. P. A. Johnson, 202 East Third St., El Paso, Texas.

"I had suffered terribly for eight years with rheumatism, indigestion and nervousness," she continued. "My whole body ached so badly that it was torture to me to get about the house and even then I had to walk with crutches. My stomach was in such a condition that I had to live on a liquid diet and even that would sour and form gas that swelled up around my heart until I could hardly breathe at times. My head ached all the time and my nerves were so torn up I could hardly ever get more than two hours sleep any one night.

"One of my friends who had taken Tanlac got me to try it, and I was just getting up from an operation, that seemed to do me no good, so I started on Tanlac. My rheumatism has all gone now, I can eat just anything I want and my nerves are as steady as a clock. I am now feeling better than I have before in eight years and have gained sixteen pounds besides and everyone is talking about my wonderful recovery."

Tanlac is sold in Maryville by the Koch Pharmacy, and A. M. Colly, Conception Junction. Adv.

LEO B. KNOX WRITES

Says They Have a Forty-Piece Band and Plenty of Music.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Knox have received a letter from their son, Leo B. Knox, in France, in which he says in part:

France October 26.

I hope you are all well and will keep well. I am O. K. Have plenty of blankets and a nice warm room to sleep in. We haven't any captain now, he was transferred to another outfit. The boys behave very well so we are getting along alright.

Well, look the movies over, you may see one of the Knox's some of these days. They are putting quite a bunch of war pictures out. We see the picture shows down town every Sunday. We have a circuit of American actors that show and some are very interesting. Our band is a knock-out. We have a forty-piece one and sure play some nice music. I sure did enjoy my vacation.

We haven't seen any of the men from the 89th division or ever hear anything about them. The weather is very wet at present here. We are in a branch of the air service and it is about the same. The work is very easy and I am very well satisfied with it. I am feeling very good. Write this address and I will get it quicker and better.

VOLUME 9. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, SATURDAY, NOV. 30, 1918 NO. 153

IS VISITATION DAY

PEOPLE ARE SUFFERING

Miss Eva Davis Named Campaign Leader by Organized Sunday School Movement.

"The remotest place on the continent in these stirring days is not too secluded to feel the world-thrill, and to have a part in the great movements thhat are making the world a better place to live in, and alleviating its suffering," said Miss Eva M. Davis of Maryville recently. Miss Davis has been chosen by the Missouri State Sunday School Association and the International Sunday School Association, with headquarters in Chicago, as the leader of a campaign looking toward a Continent-Wide Sunday School Visitation Day, December first, when every Sunday school in North America will be visited by a representative of the Organized Sunday School Movement, in behalf of the suffering thousands in Bible lands.

"Christian North America," said Miss Davis, 'is being called on at this time to pour out its money for Liberty Bonds and for war service activities of every kind. It is responding nobly. Another challenging call, however, is sounding in the ears of the Christian people of North America. It is the call of over two million people in Bible lands—Armenians, Syrians and Greeks of Asia Minor.

"These people, who are the hope of civilization in Western Asia, have endured, and are enduring, such suffering as our American minds cannot conceive. They have been massacred and deported. Men have been separated from their families and ruthlessly murdered. Attractive women and girls have been sold as slaves or taken by the Turks. The rest of the women and the children have been driven into the mountains and the desert, and the path over which these refugees have gone is strewn with the dead. In the past two years over one million have died from massacre, deportation, exposure and disease. But the dead no longer challenge us; it is those who live and can yet be saved.

"The ravages of war the past year have added to the horror. The Turkish armies have destroyed everything in their wake. Four million people destitute of home, clothed only in rags, are facing the cold of winter and starvation. One million of these can be reached by relief agencies. Four hundred thousand of them are orphans The relief agencies can do nothing unless North America furnishes the money.

"The land where Christianity had its birth is asking for a practical demonstration of that Christianity now. All the denominations have united to answer this call from the east and a campaign has been launched to raise two million dollars from the Sunday schools of North America. Every Sunday school is asked to give a Christmas season offering to Armenian and Syrian Relief work.

"To make sure that no Sunday school is overlooked in this appeal, the International Sunday School Association is planning to have every Sunday school visited on December first for the purpose of explaining the need, creating enthusiasm and pledging the schools to make as large an offering as possible. The International Sunday School Association in this campaign is working in co-operation with the Armenian and Syrian Relief Committee in New York, and the two million which they are to raise is part of a larger campaign on the part of the committee for thirty million dollars.

"The Armenian and Syrian Relief Committee has already done a wonderful work in ministering to these suffering people and have been enabled to save thousands of lives. The committee is directed by leading men of the continent and its work has been highly endorsed by President Wilson and Sir Robert Borden, the premier of Canada, and by Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft. One feature of the work of the committee is unique. It is enabled to devote all money collected for relief work to the immediate cause for which it is given. Expenses for collection, printing, postage and administration and the transmitting of funds are met privately. Distribution of all supplies is cared for by the American consular forces and Armenian missionaries, whose services are loaned for this ministry."

TO SCHOOL MONDAY

CLASSES WILL BE RESUMED IN ALL BUILDINGS

TAKE ALL PRECAUTION

Physicians Will Co-operate That Influenza Does Not Get Started. Will Make Up Time Lost.

After seven weeks enforced closing due to the epidemic of influenza the public schools will re-open next Monday morning. Supt. McDonald has notified all teachers that classes will be resumed and in order to make up the time lost thirty minutes will be added each day with classes on Saturday morning.

Supt. McDonald said this morning that every precaution will be taken to see that influenza does not get started in the schools. "At the time the schools were closed by order of the health board," said Mr. McDonald, "no school children had contracted the disease save in one room. This room has been thoroughly fumigated and disinfected."

Arrangements have been made with local physicians, one of whom will be in attendance every morning to examine every pupil haviny any symptoms of influenza. Any other cases of illness developing during the day will be excused from school until they can see the school physician on the following morning. Every teacher has been given complete information regarding influenza so that all may be able to co-operate in every way possible with the school physician.

In order to cover as much as possible of the work which has been missed by the closing of the schools for seven weeks, the afternoon sessions will be lengthened thirty minutes and school will be held on Saturday mornings only. All school bells will ring at the usual hours as heretofore.

The rural schools have practically all resumed classes. Supt. Cooper stated this morning that there were yet fifteen in the county that had not re-opened, and that these would probably resume within the next weeks.

HARVEY'S MINSTRELS COMING

Will Be Seen at Empire Theatre Next Tuesday Night.

The minstrel fans of this vicinity will be pleased to learn that one of the very best and largest minstrel organizations on the road is to appear in this city at the Empire Theater, Tuesday, Dec. 3.

The Harvey Greater Minstrels was this season organized and is owned by R. M. Harvey, a well known circus man who has for years been spending money in the circus business like money was water. The expense of building an amusement enterprise does not disturb him because as manager of one of the greatest circus enterprises on the road he learned it is only the lavish expenditure of money that success can be attained. Hence it is not surprising that Harvey's Greater Minstrels wear the swellest, most expensive wardrobe ever worn by any minstrel and also that its olio of seven acts of vaudeville include specialties not to be outclassed any where and the members of this minstrel are highest salaried and the best treated of any minstrel men on the road.

Only two presidents of the United States have borne other than British surnames. These were both Dutch—Van Buren and Roosevelt.

It is estimated there are 10,000 private employment agencies throughout the United States.

E. E. Harper of Kansas City, Will Devote Time in Effort to Secure Better Water for City.

By securing the services of an expert in purification of water the board of public works hopes to provide water patrons with better water. At a meeting of the board last night the services of E. E. Harper of Kansas City, an expert in this line, were engaged, who during the next six months will endeavor to make such improvements and corrections in the present system of handling the city water as will insure better water. The water has been brought to its present state of clarity through suggestions made by Mr. Harper.

Mr. Harper, who is a well known authority and formerly a waterworks engineer, stated that the present plant was in good condition and fully capable of providing pure water for Maryville. He said that he had made a thorough investigation of the pumping station and an inspection of the machinery and had found it in good condition, and that no part of it included any "junk." Mr. Harper said the difficulty in securing clear water was with the pressure filters, as with open filters, the water might be more easily clarified. This, he pointed out, was not a serious difficulty and may be remedied.

Mr. Harper also said that analysis of the water had proved its purity and freedom from bacteria and that the coloring was suspended matter that might presently be eliminated.

Mr. Harper will make regular trips to Maryville in his capacity as supervisor and is empowered by the board to make such changes and corrections in the operation of the plant as may be for the good of the service. He will be retained in this capacity until June 1, 1919. Manager Sorrell will continue in active charge of the water works and will carry out such instructions as may be given.

It is planned to bring 175,000 men home from Europe during December, General March stated.

The number already designated for discharge in the United States is 649,000 and of these 46,000 have been released. It is expected that the men in the camps in this country will soon be discharged at the rate of 1,000 a day.

London, Nov. 30. — Three German army generals are attempting to launch a counter military revolution in Germany to replace the ex-kaiser on the throne, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Daily Express today. The leaders of the movement have many soldiers in their following, it is reported. At Aix la Chapelle and Brunswick soldiers tore down the revolutionary flags.

PEACE DELEGATES

LANSING, WHITE, HOUSE AND BLISS WILL ACT FOR U. S.

WILSON TO HEAD PARTY

President Explains Delay Was Necessary Until Number of Representatives Had Been Agreed Upon.

Washington, Nov. 30.—President Wilson will address congress at one o'clock Monday afternoon, it was announced at the White House today. At the same time it was indicated the President would leave for New York the same afternoon and would sail for Europe on the following morning. It was also said that one of Mr. Wilson's last official acts before leaving this country would be to announce successors to Secretary McAdoo as treasurer and director general of railroads.

Washington, Nov. 30. — President Wilson personally will head the American delegation to the peace conference. This was announced officially last night at the White House.

The other members of the delegation will be:

Robert Lansing, secretary of state.

Col. E. M. House.

Henry White, former ambassador to France and Italy.

Gen. Tasker N. Bliss, former chief of staff on the army and now American military representative on the supreme war council at Versailles.

The White House announcement follows:

"It was announced at the executive office last night that the representatives of the United States at the peace conferences would be:

"The president himself, the secretary of state, the Hon. Henry White, recently ambassador to France, Mr. Edward M. House, and Gen. Tasker N. Bliss.

"It was explained that it had not been possible to announce these appointments before because the number of representatives each of the chief belligerents was to send until a day or two ago, had been under discussion."

President Wilson's announcement of the personnel of the peace delegation will cause the senate to voice its disapproval when Congress re-convenes Monday, it is believed today. There has been strong belief among members of the upper house that one of their number should be included in the delegation. Furthermore, it is reported that when the President addresses the joint session on Monday, he would do no more than describe what kind of reconstruction legislation he desires, touching only lightly on the peace conference, has served to cause republican senators especially to bring up their lines for sharp skirmishes.

Paris, Nov. 30.—The Portugese peace delegation is the first to arrive on the ground for the conference, the members having reached here today.

The physical condition of Col. House who has been ill makes it likely that he will be unable to attend the conference of the Allied leaders in London next week.

France, Nov. 2.

My Dearest Mother and All: Will drop a few lines tonight to let you know I am still in war paint and have been back from the front now for about two weeks and will be bumping about two weeks and will be humping along the rocky road to Berlin some of these days. I sure am going to get a piece of the kaiser's mustache before I get back to Maryville. When I come I will not let you know but just slip in on you for a surprise.

Commission Government--Law Governing Adoption By Cities

The process by which cities of the third class may secure and adopt commission form of government together with the powers of the commissioners under same, is set forth by law as follows:

Section 1. Any city of the third class or any city whose population would entitle it to be a city of the third class may adopt the so-called Commission form of government.

Section 2. To initiate the proceedings there must be filed a petition of legal voters equal in number to 25 per cent of the total number of votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last city election. 808 votes were cast for mayor last spring and the petition would thereore require 202 signers.

If the proposition fails to carry at the election it cannot be resubmitted for two years. If the proposition does carry the city cannot hold an election to return to the old form of organization short of six years. The election to abandon Commission government requires a petition by the same number of voters as for an election to adopt it.

When the petition for adoption of the Commission form of government is submitted the mayor is required by proclamation to submit the question at a special election to be held at a time specified therein no more than two months after the petition is filed.

Only a majority vote, not a 2-3 vote, is required to carry the proposition.

If the proposition carries cities of a population like Maryville proceed to the election of a mayor and two councilmen at the next regular city election after the adoption of the proposition for Commission government at the special election. If no regular election occurs within six months after the special election, then the mayor, within ten days after the special election, by proclamation must call a special election to elect the mayor and two councilmen, 60 days' notice thereof being given by publication.

Section 3. All laws governing cities of the third class apply to cities under Commission government. This is true even though the city was a fourth class city when it voted on the proposition. Adoption of commission government automatically adopts the laws applicable to cities of the third class.

All by-laws, ordinances and resolutions in force in the city before the adoption of commission government continue in force unless altered or repealed. The corporate limits of the city remain the same, the title to all property remains the same and no debt, obligation or liability either in favor of or against the city is affected or changed.

Section 4. The mayor and two councilmen are elected every two years. If a vacancy occurs in any of these three offices the remaining members fill it by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The three officers are elected from the city at large without regard to ward lines.

Section 5. A primary is held to nominate candidates for mayor and councilmen two weeks before the regular city election each two years. The judges and clerks at the primary election are the same as those for the regular city election to be held two weeks later and the polling places and hours between which the same is held are to be the same, as far as possible.

Any person desiring to become a candidate, or mayor or councilman must give at least a ten days' written notice of his candidacy in the form required by the statute and file the same with the city clerk.

Immediately after the time for filing notices of candidacy has expired the city clerk must publish for three successive days in all the daily papers in the city the names of all persons whose names are to appear as candidates on the primary ballot. The names of the candidates for mayor and councilmen are arranged alphabetically on the ballot. One short ballot is used for all names and the voter puts a check after the names of the candidates he votes for.

The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for mayor and the four candidates receiving the highest number of votes for councilmen shall be the candidates at the regular city election to be held two weeks later.

Section 6. The mayor and two councilmen elected compose the city council. All three have the right to vote on all questions. Two members constitute a quorum and at least two votes are required to adopt any measure. Upon every vote the yeas and nays must be called and recorded and every motion, resolution or ordinance must be reduced to writing and read before voted upon. The mayor has no power of veto, but he or the two councilmen must sign every ordinance and resolution.

Section 7. The council possesses and exercises every sort of power vested in the city government. The powers of the city are distributed among five departments as follows:

Department of public affairs.
Department of accounts and finance.
Department of public safety.
Department of streets and public improvements.
Department of parks and public property.

Two or more of these departments may be assigned to one officer.

The council has authority to determine the powers and duties of all officers and may combine the duties of several offices in one man and, in general, run the city as a private enterprise would be run.

Section 8 and 10. The mayor is the superintendent of the Department of Public Affairs and the other four departments are divided between the two councilmen subject to change from time to time as the council may see fit.

The council may create, abolish, appoint to and demote from the following offices from time to time as it sees fit.

City clerk.
City attorney.
Assessor.
Treasurer.
Auditor.
City engineer.
City physician.
Marshal.
Fire chief.
Police judge.
Market master.
Street commissioner.
Three library trustees.
Any other officers or assistants.

Section 9. The salary of the mayor and two councilmen shall be fixed by ordinance payable in equal monthly installments. The compensation of all other officers shall also be filed by ordinance.

Section 10. (See Section 8.)

Section 11. The council hold their first meeting on the first Monday after their election and at least once a month thereafter at a date fixed by ordinance Special meetings can be called by the mayor, and the two councilmen. The meetings shall be open to the public unless they are in executive session. The mayor shall be President of the council and possesses a supervising authority over all departments. The superintendent of the department of accounts and finances shall be vice-president of the council.

Section 12. Every measure appropriating money or providing for any street or sewer improvement or any contract or franchise must be on file in form as passed at the city clerk's office for one week before passage. All franchises can be granted only by a majority vote of the city.

Section 13. Provisions similar to our Corrupt Practice Act about being interested in city contracts, etc.

Section 14. Civil service commissioners—applicable only to cities of between 20,000 and 30,000 population.

Section 15. More provisions with reference to corrupt practice.

Section 16. An itemized statement of receipts and expenses must be printed every three months in pamphlet form and copies furnished to the Public Library and all newspapers in the city and all persons who apply therefor at the City Hall. A complete audit of all books must be made at the end of each year and the results published in detailed pamphlet orm as above.

Section 17. Special provisions regarding outstanding appropriations made by city adopting City Government.

Section 18. Definitions.

Section 19. This provides for the recalling of elective officers at any time. A petition for the election of a successor to the officer desired to be removed must be filed, signed by at least 25 per cent of the number of voters who voted for all candidates for mayor at the last election, stating, also generally, the grounds for removal. The signatures need not all be on one page but at least one signer to each paper must make oath that the statements therein are true and that the signatuers are authentic. Within ten days after the petition is filed the City Clerk shall examine the same and ascertain if the required number of voters have signed it. If found to be insufficient, it may be amended within ten days and in case of amendment the Clerk must examine it again within ten days. If found insufficient the second time it must be withdrawn but the signers may file a new petition. If a sufficient petition is lodged with the Clerk a special election must be held within not less than thirty nor more than forty days pursuant to due publication and all formalities as in a regular election.

Nominations at a recall election are not made by primary but by petition filed with the City Clerk at least ten days before the election signed by voters numbering at least 10 per cent of the number cast for mayor at the last city general election. If the officer is ousted and a successor elected he holds office for the unexpired term of his predecessor. The officer sought to be removed will be designated as a candidate at the special recall election, without a petition, unless he requires otherwise, in writing; the candidate receiving the highest number of votes is elected. If the party selected fails to qualify within ten days the office is deemed vacant.

Section 20. Provides about Referendum.

By petition the voters may submit a proper ordinance to the city council. All formalities with respect to verification of the petition are the same as in recall elections. If the petition is signed by 25 per cent of the voters the council must pass the ordinance without alteration within twenty days or submit it to a special election unless there is a general election within 90 days. If the petition is signed by less than 25 per cent but more than 10 per cent the council must pass the ordinance within twenty days or submit it at the next general election if there is one within 30 days. A majority vote in favor of the ordinance adopts it and it cannot be repealed or amended by the council without a vote of the people. Any number of ordinances may be voted on at one election but there shall not be more than one special election in any six months period. The council may submit a proposition or the repeal of any ordinance thus voted on, or for amendments thereto, at the next general city election. All ordinances voted on must be published once in each daily paper in the city no more than 20 nor less than 5 days before the election.

Section 21. No ordinance except one for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, containing an emergency clause, can go into effect before ten days from its final passage and during said ten days a petition signed by 25 per cent of the voters may be filed protesting against the passage of the ordinance whereupon the ordinance shall be suspended until an election is held to consider it, and if a majority vote against it it is lost.

FORREST GOODEN IN ENGLAND

Says Nearly Every British Tommy One Sees Is Wounded.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Gooden are in receipt of the following letter from their son, Forrest, who had landed in England just a few days previous to writing.

Winchester, Eng., Nov. 10.

Dear Mother and Dad: How is everybody at home by this time? Hope you have received my card announcing my safe arrival here. We has a nice trip across the ocean, with the exception of a few days of rough weather. I have been several places in England but am not permitted to name them. There sure are lots of big camps over here. The one we are in is a very large one. It is a large city by itself, believe me. I sure have not lost anything in England. The sun never shines and it rains every day. But every one is in a good humor. You used to think I could not step out of the house back home without catching cold and you ought to see how and where we sleep and eat over here.

You can tell dad that Sherman sure knew what he was talking about when he said war is hell. You people back in the states have no idea what war is. Very nearly every British Tommy you see over here is wounded but, thank God, it has come to look like war would be settled before very long, but you can't tell what Fritz has up his sleeves. You sure can tell all the world I will be glad when I get back in the good old U. S. A. I expect you would laugh to see me marching along in big hobnailed shoes, a 45 on my hip and about a 75 pound pack on my back. You feel more like a pack mule than a soldier, but we try to smile through everything. We won't be long at this camp, but expect to go on to France soon. I sure hope it is warmer there than here. How is the "flu" back in the states?

Hope you and dad are enjoying good health as I am, and please don't worry for Uncle Sam will take good care of us. I haven't seen anyone from dear old Maryville since I have been here.

I will close for this time and will try and write you every day if possible but you won't receive them that often so don't worry.

Co. D, 423 Telephone Battalion, Signal Corps.

NEWS FROM

Taken from Papers over the County.

The prospect for a good wheat crop was never better here. Unusually favorable weather has caused a rapid and vigorous growth of the crop and many fields are being pastured. The extra forage is certainly needed for the stock by Nodaway county farmers this year.—Burlington Junction Post.

E. H. Trosper, who has been living on the Luther Fast place west of Burlington Junction, has leased the W. W. Potts farm of 240 acres 3½ miles south of Burlington Junction. This is a splendid farm and Ev will make it blossom like the rose. L. D. Carter, who has been living on this farm, has bought a place in Nebraska and will move there.

It sounded unusual to hear the school bell ring last Saturday, and no doubt it sounded worse than that to the pupils. But it is the only way that the board of directors of Burlington Junction can devise to make up the four weeks' time that was lost when the school was closed, without continuing the term until late in the spring. Under the present arrangement school begins on Saturday at 8:30. A half hour is allowed for lunch at noon, and school is dismissed at 2:30 in the after noon. This makes a full day, and at the same time allows the pupils a short holiday. There will be no school tomorrow, Thanksgiving, but there will be school Friday and Saturday, as usual. Every thing possible will be done to make up the lost time so that the term can close the middle of May.

The 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffey, who live on the A. C. Nicholas farm south of Burlington Junction, was severely injured Thursday afternoon when he fell from a load of corn, which his father was bringing from the field. The back wheel run over the boy's shoulder, crushing it badly. There were forty bushels of corn in the load and it was almost a miracle that the boy was not killed. Dr. W. M. Hindman was called and he reduced the injury as much as possible.

A party of six land buyers were in Burlington Junction from Illinois and Iowa Friday and spent the day looking at some of the ranch land west of Burlington Junction. The fame of Nodaway and Atchison counties as great agricultural sections is travelling far and wide. While, in some cases the land looks "high" to the people who have spent many years here and have seen it advance from $5 an acre to $150, it evidently doesn't appeal that way to the men who come from older settled districts, many of whom buy, and come here to "grow up with the country."

The Elmo school board decided that it will be best to start school next Monday morning, Dec. 2.

Last Monday Wm. Green purchased the restaurant Howard Garrett traded for at College Springs and has moved the stock to Clearmont, into the building formerly occupied by A. H. Kelley just west of the old Dr. Dowell office, and is shelving and arranging them and will run a restaurant. He expects to be ready to open up for business the first of next week. Mrs. Green will assist in waiting on the customers.

Glen Lincoln sold his farm of 160 acres located west of Bolckow to a Mr. Hale for $147.50, the deal being completed Tuesday. Lincoln bought this farm last year. He gives possession March 1, and has no plans for the coming year.

Chas. Wohlford of Barnard returned from Camp McArthur, Texas, last Saturday, having received his discharge. He is among the first of those to be discharged in the general disbanding of the draft army. Roy Langley of Guilford, who is home on a furlough has a discharge waiting him on his return.

S. A. Matson of Barnard, has an old flag which has a unique history, that was brought to mind during the recent victory celebration when it was displayed at Hartley & Daniels' store. The flag was the banner of the old Penfield Post of the Grand army of the Republic which was located at Barnard until a few years ago. On the day of the election of Cleveland for the last time, the flag was flying at the corner of the State Bank. When the news came that he was elected, some rowdies took the flag down and hid it away in the old dump where it lay for four or five years before it was accidentally found. Jim McKnight then took charge of the flag and upon his leaving for the west, left it in the hands of S. A. Matson, who has it now. Its frayed appearance is due to its being allowed to fly in the wind during one summer over the school house.

John A. Fields, prominent banker, farmer and business man of Barnard and Nodaway county, celebrated his 52nd birthday Tuesday. Mr. Fields has been the successful cashier of the Barnard State Bank for the past twenty years and has built that institution up into a powerful bank. He owns about 660 acres of land and farms for an avocation. He has been very prominent in the recent Liberty Loan and Charity drives and has handled them very successfully. The day was celebrated at his home with a few guests at dinner. Those present were Mrs. Anna Matheny, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Matson and Miss Maggie Matson.

Dwight Shipps and family of Skidmore left Saturday for Bethany, Mo., to visit his parents and to attend the memorial services, which were to be held at that place on Sunday, November 24, for his brother, Thomas Shipps, who was wounded in action in France. The date of his death was September 27.

Jarvis Close, eight miles and one-half west of Skidmore, was taken to St. Joseph Saturday for an operation for appendicitis. He was operated on but did not survive the operation. The body was brought to Fairfax Wednesday evening and interment will be today.

Charley Beech and family of Clarinda, Iowa, started by auto yesterday to Topeka, Kansas. By the time they reached the river at Rulo, Nebraska, the roads became almost unmanageable and the auto did not want to go very well so they turned around and started home. It was quite late when they reached Skidmore and Mr. Beech thought he knew the road home and wanted to get home last night. But he started out of town on the wrong street and when he got to the first road going north he went that way when he should have gone about a half a mile farther east. He made it alright until he reached the crooked road around the Smith cemetery and it seems as though he and the car got at loggerheads, for when he pushed one way the car would try and go another way. After trying that awhile he arbitrated the matter by tying one hind wheel with his toe line and hitching it up to a fence post to keep it from running away and they put up for the night in the auto.

This morning they got a team to help them back to town and they took the next train for home.

Lige Davis of Clearmont loaded his effects into a car Monday and on Tuesday shipped it to Colorado, where he has bought land. His son went with the car, but Lige and his family went through by auto.

At a special meeting of the Conception school board Monday evening it was decided that a reward of $25.00 be offered for information leading to arrest and conviction of the party or parties who attempted to destroy the Conception Junction school building, Sunday evening, Nov. 24, 1918, by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Farnan of Conception went to Rochester, Minn., Monday where they will receive medical treatment.

George Dooley of Hopkins has received word from Mrs. Lillie Florea of Colorado Springs, stating that her son-in-law, Wendell Harness, had died of pneumonia. Mr. Harness has only been in service a short time and was in France at the time of his death. His wife, Mrs. Eva Harness, was in the hospital with influenza when the news of his death came Nov. 16.

Jim Conant and Russel Thompson left Hopkins last week with two cars for their new home near Rose Pine, La. We are sorry to see such good people leave this section, but feel it will not be long until they will be ready to return, this being the history of most people who leave here looking for a better country.

Ora Burch of Hopkins has decided to move to Wyoming, to a ranch near Cheyentt, and as he says, will raise sheep and live on prairie dogs. He will give a closing out sale here Dec. 3.

Mrs. H. S. Maxwell of Hopkins is in receipt of a telegram announcing the safe arrival of her husband overseas.

Mrs. Paul Newlon and two children, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Newlon's mother, Mrs. J. T. Carpenter, left Sunday for their home in Olney Springs, Colo. Major Paul Newlon has been in France for some time, but is expected home within the next few months. Major Newlon has made rapid advancement since he entered military service and was entrusted with much responsible work before being sent across with the expeditionary forces. He lived at Clearmont and Maryville before going west.—Burlington Junction Post.

Good Job For Hopkins Man.

At the close of the present term of school, Supt. Richeson of Hopkins, will return to Carroll county to take up new duties as instructor in vocational agriculture. This is a new phase of educational work provided for by the Smith Hughes Act, under which one half of the teacher's salary is paid by the United States government. The duties of the new work will call upon Mr. Richeson to act as principal of the school, instructor in agriculture, and supervisor of agricultural projects for boys. In the latter case, the work will be in co-operation with the county farm agent. The salary will be two hundred dollars per month.—Hopkins Journal.

TOOK HIM AN HOUR TO WALK A BLOCK

Had to Hobble Around on Two Canes—Able to Work First Time in Four Years Since Taking Tanlac.

"I hadn't been able to do a day's work in four years when I began taking Tanlac, but I have gained thirty pounds and am now putting in full time every day," said J. C. Fischer of Edmonds, Oklahoma.

"Four years ago," he continued, "I was taken down with typhoid fever that left me so weak and rundown I could just manage to hobble around on my two canes and it would actually take me an hour to go a block sometimes. I had catarrh badly and it gave me no end of trouble. My appetite was poor, and even the lightest food I could get would upset my stomach. I was miserable night and day and took all kinds of medicines without getting any better.

"I begun to pick up immediately after I started on Tanlac and after I finished my third bottle, I threw away my canes and went back to work. I kept on taking Tanlac—have now taken five bottles, haven't missed a day's work since—the catarrh has disappeared; I can eat just anything I want to, sleep like a log and I sure thank Tanlac for my recovery.

EL PASO WOMEN'S FRIENDS SURPRISED

Mrs. Johnson Declares That Her Rapid Recovery Astonished Everyone—Had Suffered for Eight Years.

"My recovery and improvement since I started taking Tanlac, has astonished all my friends," said Mrs. P. A. Johnson, 202 East Third St., El Paso, Texas.

"I had suffered terribly for eight years with rheumatism, indigestion and nervousness," she continued. "My whole body ached so badly that it was torture to me to get about the house and even then I had to walk with crutches. My stomach was in such a condition that I had to live on a liquid diet and even that would sour and form gas that swelled up around my heart until I could hardly breathe at times. My head ached all the time and my nerves were so torn up I could hardly ever get more than two hours sleep any one night.

"One of my friends who had taken Tanlac got me to try it, and I was just getting up from an operation, that seemed to do me no good, so I started on Tanlac. My rheumatism has all gone now, I can eat just anything I want and my nerves are as steady as a clock. I am now feeling better than I have before in eight years and have gained sixteen pounds besides and everyone is talking about my wonderful recovery."

LEO B. KNOX WRITES

Says They Have a Forty-Piece Band and Plenty of Music.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Knox have received a letter from their son, Leo B. Knox, in France, in which he says in part:

France October 26.

I hope you are all well and will keep well. I am O. K. Have plenty of blankets and a nice warm room to sleep in. We haven't any captain now, he was transferred to another outfit. The boys behave very well so we are getting along alright.

Well, look the movies over, you may see one of the Knox's some of these days. They are putting quite a bunch of war pictures out. We see the picture shows down town every Sunday. We have a circuit of American actors that show and some are very interesting. Our band is a knock-out. We have a forty-piece one and sure play some nice music. I sure did enjoy my vacation.

We haven't seen any of the men from the 89th division or ever hear anything about them. The weather is very wet at present here. We are in a branch of the air service and it is about the same. The work is very easy and I am very well satisfied with it. I am feeling very good. Write this address and I will get it quicker and better.
